PACKED WITH SWELTERING HUMANITY, and as the Street Railway Company with its usual improvidence and want of enterprise, had neglected to put on extra cars, hundreds were compelled to walk. By 3 o'clock both banks of the river above the ferry were crowded with men, women and children—on foot, in carriages, and and children—on foot, in carriages, and perched upon trees, housetope, and in every position favorable to a good view of the race course. WHAT ARTISTS SAY ABOUT WEBER PLANCE.—It is an admitted fact that where there is much smoke there must be some fire; ergo, if all the artists praise the Weber Piano, then they must be something to boast of.

Nilsson says: "It satisfied me in all respects, and I shall take every opportunity to recommend and praise the Weber Pianos to my friends."

Kellogg says: "For six years your Pianos have been my choice for the concert room and my own house, where one of your splendid grands now stands."

Ilma Di Mursha says: "I rank you as the foremost manufacturer of the day."

Johann Strauss says: "I have never yet seen any Pianos which equal yours."

Carlotta Patti says: "I give your Pianos the preference over all."

Teress Careno says: "The Weber Pianos are the best."
